PROPOSAL FOR INVITED SYMPOSIUM 13th INT CONG CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY-SANTIAGO DE COMPOSTELA, 2020

We inform you that the 13th International Congress of Clinical Psychology (on-site/online) will be held in Santiago de Compostela (Spain) from 11th to 14th November 2020.

Advance of the Scientific Program:

<https://www.clinicalpsychologycongress.com/program>

Official languages: English, Spanish, Portuguese, Russian and French

We encourage you to send a proposal of INVITED SYMPOSIUM in which you present your scientific or professional contributions, with those people that you consider appropriate.

Each symposium will take 90 minutes and it will be composed of four or five communications of 15 minutes each one and a consequent debate.

The Congress organization will be in charge of the registration fee of the person that coordinates the session. There must be a registered person by each communication presented, with the exception of the coordinator, who can present a communication.

You must send your proposal before next JULY 23th, including the following information, in a Word document:

- Name and mini curriculum of the coordinator (100-150 words)
- Title of the symposium
- Brief summary of the symposium (100-150 words)
- Titles, authors and author's manager (and affiliation) of the communications included in the symposium.

And in a jog file:

- Passport-sized photo, in jpg file format

EMAIL FOR SENDING: psclinica.sec@aepec.es

Official languages: English, Spanish, Portuguese, Russian and French.

Once we have received your proposal, the scientific committee will assess it and communicate you their decision.

Kind regards,

Scientific Committee
